SOS Collection – The Knights of Columbus will be taking up a “loose change” collection after each Mass next weekend. The “Support our Seminarians” collection supports the seminary students of the Columbus Diocese.

About the Cover – Pictured on the bulletin cover is the Holy Family, from a stained glass window in St. Patrick Church. The window depicts the Holy Family of Nazareth; the Blessed Virgin Mary, St. Joseph, and Jesus as a young boy. The family is going about their tasks of daily life. Mary is working with a distaff and spindle, calling to mind the ideal wife described in Proverbs 31:19. Joseph, the carpenter, is at work providing for his family. Jesus, the obedient Son, is assisting. The three figures are of one accord and are much attuned to each other. However, the child Jesus, also seems to be listening to another – his heavenly Father’s voice. He is the one who asked of his parents “Why did you search for me? Did you not know I must be about my Father’s business?” Despite the harmony, there is a foreshadowing of Jesus’ destiny as our crucified Savior. The blood red cloth and the cross like lumber carried by the young boy are indicators of the man he will become that laid down His life for us. In 1937, former pastor, Fr. William P. Clark wrote a book entitled, “Brief History of St. Patrick’s Parish.” He wrote that the window, a gift of the Dwyer Brothers costing $180, was added at the time of the addition to the church in 1910-11. Over the course of time as an outgrowth of our 150th anniversary year, we hope to feature other artistic and devotional works within the church that give us a foretaste of heaven.

ST. PATRICK CHURCH NEWS

EASTER GREETINGS

After Deacon Dan places the Paschal Candle in its stand, he begins to sing the Easter Proclamation, also called the Exsultet. The first paragraph follows:

*“Exult, let them exult, the hosts of heaven,
Exult, let Angel ministers of God exult,
Let the trumpet of salvation
Sound aloud our mighty King’s triumph!
Be glad, let earth be glad, as glory floods her,
Ablaze with light from her eternal King,
Let all corners of the earth be glad,
Knowing an end to gloom and darkness.
Rejoice, let Mother Church also rejoice,
Arrayed with the lightning of his glory,
Let this holy building shake with joy,
Filled with the mighty voices of the peoples.”*

On Easter, the entire Church truly exults because of the Resurrection of Jesus from the dead. Death has no more power over us. Even our everyday deaths are ultimately overcome by the Risen Lord. Hope and New Life abounds. You and I are ambassadors of this New Life. May each of us be filled with a living and renewed faith in the Risen Lord again this year.

May you all have a Blessed Easter!

~ Fr. Ghiloni

WHAT DO YOU KNOW?

“What do you know?” is the question linking all three readings today. Imagine the shock waves that shot through the city of Jerusalem that first Easter morning. Jesus’ body was missing! By the time Peter spoke the words found in today’s first reading, fifty days had passed, so he began by saying, in effect, “I take it you know what has been reported all over Judea about Jesus of Nazareth.” Of course they knew by then, but in today’s Gospel we are taken back to the first day. We meet Mary Magdalene exclaiming, “We don’t know where they put him!” What do we know? In the second reading Paul asks, “Do you not know that a little yeast leavens all the dough?” Do we know the power of our own faith? Do we know the effect we can have on others? © Copyright, J. S.
