About the Cover – Pictured on the bulletin cover is the restored oil painting of the Blessed Virgin Mary and Child. Dates are a bit inexact but this painting hung over the side altar in 1866 to the mid-1880's when it was replaced by the statue of the Immaculate Heart of Mary. This painting and its companion painting of St. Joseph and Child were then stored for about 120 years in the church basement. Dirt, tears, and the ravages of time have been repaired. They once again enliven our devotion to Our Lady, St. Joseph, and the Christ Child. In the lower left hand corner of each painting the artist wrote "Alcan fecit." Latin for "Alcan made this." Our painting of the Blessed Virgin Mary is based on an ancient icon attributed to St. Luke the Evangelist. Arriving in Rome in 390 AD, it is in the Basilica of St. Mary Major in Rome titled "Salus Populi Romani" (Protectress of the Roman People). Over the course of time, as an outgrowth of our 150th anniversary year, we hope to feature other sacred, artistic, and devotional works within the church that give us a foretaste of heaven.

ST. PATRICK CHURCH NEWS

Memorial Mass For Father Chris Coleman

A Memorial Mass for Fr. Chris Coleman will be celebrated on Thursday, July 27 at 7 p.m. here at St. Patrick Church with a light reception immediately following in the parish center. You are all invited to come and join Chris' family in prayer. Since most folks from London could not attend his funeral Mass in Cincinnati, this is a way for us to pray for a Son of our Parish who decided to give his life in service to God and his people as a priest. Chris was ordained for 11 years and, in that time, he touched many lives. May Fr. Chris rest in God's eternal peace!

~Fr. Ghiloni

The New Organ Project Is Underway! – This weekend after the 10:30 a.m. Mass, help is needed to clear out chairs, etc. in the choir loft. This task should not take long, so if you are available, your help would be appreciated. The dismantling of the existing organ will begin this week. There will be a dumpster in front of the church for a brief period of time.

This Week's Mass Schedule – Please note, there will be no 8:00 a.m. Mass on Thursday of this week. On Thursday evening, there will be a Memorial Mass at 7:00 p.m. as stated above. Please see the previous page for this week's complete Mass schedule.

Please See This Week's Insert for our next Walking With Purpose Women's Bible Study that is scheduled to begin the week of September 17. In an effort to help this fit with busy schedules, this 22-week study will be offered on Sunday evenings, as well as Thursday mornings. The cost of the workbook is $40. There will be a registration form in next week's bulletin, so please consider joining in and exploring your faith as we begin the "Opening Your Heart" study.

Community Supper – Desserts Needed – The next Community Supper will be held on Wednesday, July 26 from 4:30 p.m. – 6:30 p.m. in the parish center. The menu is Spaghetti, Salad, Garlic Bread and Dessert. The Madison

Senior Living Community and St. Patrick Church have partnered together to provide a warm, nutritious meal as a service to the community. There is a sign-up sheet in the connecting hallway if you would like to donate a dessert. Carry out will also be available. You may call Melissa Watson at The Madison Senior Living Community at (740) 845-0145 by 2 p.m. on that day to place an order to go.

Don't Forget To Look At The Back of The Bulletin – "Thank You!" goes to many area businesses for their advertising in the parish bulletin. Their support, many of them parishioners, is much appreciated. Please consider them in your business needs.

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA)

The next session will be held on Monday, July 24 in the parish parlor from 7:00 p.m. – 8:30 p.m. The Catechumen and Candidates will receive the sacraments of Initiation on Sunday, August 6 during the 10:30 a.m. Mass. Please keep them in your prayers as they prepare to be fully initiated and received into the Catholic faith.

'Protecting God's Children' Class - St. Patrick School, 226 Elm St., London will be offering a Protecting God's Children Class on Saturday, August 12 starting promptly at 8:30 a.m. and ending at 11:30 a.m. Please pre-register online at www.virtus.org. There is no charge for the program. This is a diocesan requirement for all parish/school staff and all volunteers.

ST. PATRICK SCHOOL NEWS

St. Patrick Early Learning Center is now enrolling for the 2017-2018 school year. Our preschool program was established in 2002 to provide quality care for children ages 2 ½ - 5 years old. The ELC is licensed by the Ohio Department of Education and is a part of St. Patrick School. The ELC has two programs available to parents – full-time and part-time. Our programs are guided by the Early Learning Content Standards set by the Ohio Department of Education. The program director holds a Master's diploma in Early Childhood Development. Each staff member involved in the program meets certain in-service education requirements each year. Please call Polly Forde-Johnston at (740) 490-7429 for more information.

Help Restore St. Mary Church in German Village

- All are invited to the Ohio Theater on Monday, July 31 at 5:30 p.m. for a campaign kick-off to "Restore Renew Revitalize" St. Mary Church in German Village. There is no charge for admission, but a free-will offering will be taken up during the evening. The evening will include many things with the highlight being a showing of the movie, "The Bells of St. Mary's." There will be no charge for refreshments served at this event. Please RSVP by July 25 to sheilalutz13@gmail.com.

"Contemplating The Mass" At St. Therese's Retreat Center

Fr. Dan Dury, pastor of St. Catharine Church in Columbus will present, "Contemplating the Mass" at the Catholic Laywomen's Retreat League's 3rd annual Evening of Reflection on Thursday, August 24 from 6-9 p.m. Using the Mass as his topic, Fr. Dan will present exciting and powerful insights into the history, spirituality, and biblical foundations of the Liturgy of the Eucharist. He will open the door to contemplate more profoundly this most perfect prayer of thanksgiving. In so doing, he will lead the way to a deeper experience of this most sacred of all mysteries, which is the source and summit of all of life. Held at St. Therese's Retreat Center, 5277 E. Broad St. in Columbus, this presentation will consist of two conferences by Fr. Dury, before and after an elegant prime rib dinner. The event closes with evening prayer in the intimate chapel of the historic retreat center. Cost is $25 and the deadline is August 1. Space is limited and will fill quickly. The registration form can be requested by emailing retreatleague@gmail.com or by calling CLRL Secretary Sharon Gehrlich at (614) 882-1946. Phone reservations cannot be accepted.

PATIENTLY AWAITING JUDGMENT

Matthew, more than any other evangelist, talks about Jesus leaving and returning home. Often Jesus leaves the house because crowds have assembled outside and want to be taught. Today, after having taught and dismissed the crowds, his disciples follow him home, seeking further explanation of what seem to be, at least to us today, pretty straightforward parables. For both Matthew and Mark, when Jesus is in the house with his disciples it signals a special teaching moment, and it should cause us today to perk up our ears. Usually it is Jesus giving commonsense advice about what it will mean to follow him. Today is no different. To follow Jesus means to be ready to encounter the followers of evil, to have to live and work and preach among them. It means patiently awaiting the judgment that can only come from God, the judgment of justly deciding who will be thrown into the flame and who will live to be a brightly shining saint. Let us heed this house-teaching, for it will be the same for us who follow Jesus Christ today.
