Eucharistic Adoration

1st Fridays
 Exposition – after 8 a.m. Mass
 Benediction - 12:00 Noon

About the Cover – Pictured on the bulletin cover is the restored oil painting of the Blessed Virgin Mary and Child. Dates are a bit inexact but this painting hung over the side altar in 1866 to the mid-1880's when it was replaced by the statue of the Immaculate Heart of Mary. This painting and its companion painting of St. Joseph and Child were then stored for about 120 years in the church basement. Dirt, tears, and the ravages of time have been repaired. They once again enliven our devotion to Our Lady, St. Joseph, and the Christ Child. In the lower left hand corner of each painting the artist wrote "Alcan fecit." Latin for "Alcan made this." Our painting of the Blessed Virgin Mary is based on an ancient icon attributed to St. Luke the Evangelist. Arriving in Rome in 390 AD, it is in the Basilica of St. Mary Major in Rome titled "Salus Populi Romani" (Protectress of the Roman People). Over the course of time, as an outgrowth of our 150th anniversary year, we hope to feature other sacred, artistic, and devotional works within the church that give us a foretaste of heaven.

JACKPOT

In our lottery- and sweepstakes-laden culture, it is common to ask ourselves or others what they would do if they won. In today's first reading, Solomon certainly hits the jackpot. What prize could be greater than having God Almighty agree to give you whatever you ask for? Out of all the things he could have asked for, Solomon chose to ask for understanding, and he was rewarded with it. We would do well to wonder what we would ask for if God made us the same offer. Actually God does make us the same offer each and every day, by granting us another day of life, a bit of the earth's goods, some gift or ability, some call to goodness, some portion of the divine will. Each of these is a "prize." We should stop and examine what we are going to do with our prize: keep it or use it selfishly, or put it at the service of the spread of the gospel?
