Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary

About the Cover – Pictured on the bulletin cover is the restored oil painting of the Blessed Virgin Mary and Child. Dates are a bit inexact but this painting hung over the side altar in 1866 to the mid-1880's when it was replaced by the statue of the Immaculate Heart of Mary. This painting and its companion painting of St. Joseph and Child were then stored for about 120 years in the church basement. Dirt, tears, and the ravages of time have been repaired. They once again enliven our devotion to Our Lady, St. Joseph, and the Christ Child. In the lower left hand corner of each painting the artist wrote "Alcan fecit." Latin for "Alcan made this." Our painting of the Blessed Virgin Mary is based on an ancient icon attributed to St. Luke the Evangelist. Arriving in Rome in 390 AD, it is in the Basilica of St. Mary Major in Rome titled "Salus Populi Romani" (Protectress of the Roman People). Over the course of time, as an outgrowth of our 150th anniversary year, we hope to feature other sacred, artistic, and devotional works within the church that give us a foretaste of heaven.

ST. PATRICK CHURCH NEWS

Tuesday, August 15 - The Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary is a Holy Day of Obligation for Catholics. The Assumption of Mary is a dogma of the Church that recognizes the Blessed Virgin Mary's singular participation in her Son's Resurrection by which she was taken up body and soul into heavenly glory, when the course of her earthly life was finished. There will be Masses on Tuesday at 8:00 a.m. and 7:00 p.m.

Congratulations! Last Sunday, four people were welcomed into the Church through the Sacraments of Initiation. Timothy Winebrenner received Baptism, Confirmation and Holy Eucharist for the first time at the 10:30 a.m. Mass. Joining him were his mother, Donann Winebrenner, Joshua Clifton and Reva Skaggs who received Confirmation and Holy Eucharist. The parish welcomes and congratulations them on their journey of faith.

What Is RCIA? The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults is an ancient process by which those seeking to become Catholic, journey with the help of sponsors and catechists into the faith. Each fall, a new group of those seeking to become Catholic, gather together each Monday evening at 7 p.m. to explore the teachings of our faith. If you or someone you know is interested in learning more about the Catholic faith, please join us on Monday, September 11 in the parish parlor. This is an open and welcoming gathering and there is no obligation to "join" the Church. The RCIA team will be there to meet you and share information. We hope to see you there.

PRESENCE

It is difficult to be truly present to another. We speak of putting in an appearance or showing up. Even when we arrive, we are often distracted. We think ahead, or we review an unsettled past. Nonetheless, we are at our best when we truly show up. We are most fully ourselves when we are absorbed in something worthy of us: creative work, good conversation, prayer. In these instances we are wholly ourselves and wholly outside ourselves.

Elijah knew this kind of engagement. He was one of God's great prophets. In today's first reading, he follows God's command to journey to that most holy place, Mount Horeb. And there in great silence, Elijah encounters God.

As for Peter and the apostles, they discover the presence of God after the storm at sea. They and the sea and the winds are stunned into silent reverence.
