About the Cover

– Pictured on the bulletin cover is the stained glass window in St. Patrick’s Church depicting the parable of the Good Samaritan. The window shows the story as found in Luke’s gospel (10: 25-37) where a Jew was robbed and left for dead along a busy road. A temple priest and a Levite saw and should have helped him but chose to ignore him and passed by. However, a Samaritan (a people generally at odds with the Jews) took pity on him and saw to his immediate and long term care. The Samaritan is imaged as the Lord Jesus – his robes and the style of halo are strong hints that this is Christ. But look carefully at the faces of the two. Aren’t they the same face? There’s a whole sermon going on here in stained glass! There’s Jesus who brings healing to those in need and there’s also Jesus who is in need of healing. Read the gospel from Matthew (25: 31-46) to help understand what is meant. Former pastor, Fr. William P. Clark wrote a book, “Brief History of St. Patrick’s Parish” in 1937. He wrote that the window, a gift of Mr. and Mrs. Michael McNamara costing $180, was added at the time of the addition to the church in 1910-11.

GET READY

The letters of Paul to the Thessalonians are among his earliest writings, and are driven by his belief and the belief of the entire early Christian community that the return of Christ was imminent. Therefore, to devote time or attention to anything else was foolish. As time progressed, this fervor relented a bit. Today we may wonder, when we hear these readings about the coming end times, if we should take them to heart. What should we do when we hear that the day of the Lord will come upon us “like a thief at night”? (1 Thessalonians 5:2) Does this mean we are to stop our long-range goal-setting, get rid of our yearly calendars and planners, or stop putting money in the college education fund? Of course not. What it does mean is that we need to change our lives, living like children of the light and illuminating the world around us with the light of the gospel. Then, on that day, when the details of our daily living become unimportant, we will be ready to find our peace and security in Christ Jesus. © Copyright, J. S. Paluch Co.
