About the Cover – Pictured on the bulletin cover is the crucifix on the Altar of Repose above the tabernacle. Different crucifixes have been used at different times over the years. One of a simpler design continues to be used during Lent. Another one in the “Upper Room Museum” is a marble crucifix that can be seen in early photographs of the church. This particular one on the cover was given to St. Patrick’s by Mike Koesters, who is frequently a psalmist/cantor, especially at the 7:30 a.m. Sunday Mass. Mike tells that it was passed on to him by family members and that it was originally from the Cathedral of the Diocese of Nashville. It is of Gothic design most likely from the late 19th century to the early 20th century. Its Gothic design complements the altar appointments of our 19th century church.

A hymn for Good Friday from The Roman Missal describes the cross in this way:

“Faithful Cross the Saints rely on,
 Noble tree beyond compare!
 Never was there such a scion,
 Never leaf or flower so rare.
 Sweet the timber, sweet the iron,
 Sweet the burden that they bear.”

ST. PATRICK PARISH NEWS

A Pastor's Musings

St. Augustine said, "We are an Easter People and Alleluia is our song." There can be no truer statement about us as Christians. We believe in the hope of the Resurrection, and we experience the Risen Lord's Power in our lives each day. That Power assists us in the carrying of our burdens.

As most of you know, I have not been feeling too well for quite some time. Between my back pain and heart arrhythmias, my energy level has been quite low. I appreciate all of your prayers and words of support. They have truly been a sign to me of the Risen Lord's Power at work. I am working with doctors to improve my conditions. I have hope that I will improve and my energy will increase. Please keep the prayers coming and living our Easter joy.

I have recently read the Holy Father's latest Apostolic Exhortation, "Gaudete et Exsultate" (On the Call to Holiness in Today's World). You can find it online. It is the best presentation on holiness I think I have ever read. I recommend it to you for your reading. It is not that long.

May the Risen Lord continue to bless you all!

Fr. Mark Ghiloni

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

There are few openings for "Shepherds" in the classified ads today, but few occupations are as dear to the Christian heart. Most of us tenderly place shepherds by our Christmas cribs, name the Twenty-third Psalm as our favorite, and recognize "Good Shepherd" as a title of Jesus. Bishops carry a staff, called a crozier, modeled after the shepherd's walking staff. Long before Christian artists painted Jesus on the cross, they traced on the walls of their worship places images of a strong young shepherd, shouldering a lost sheep and bringing it to safety. Springtime is the season of lambing, a time when the shepherd not only learns the faces of the new arrivals, but also when the newborn sheep become attuned to the voice of the shepherd. This is exactly what we do as a community in Easter as we shelter and guide the newly received Christians, and also put our Lenten muscles to good use: listening more attentively to God's Word, and responding with springtime vigor to God's call. — James Field, Copyright © J.
